What Makes Us Different

Overcoming the loss of a limb involves breaking down the emotional and physical barriers that prevents success. You will need a team of professionals who understand what you are going through and who can provide you with the tools you need to get your life back. Our team was assembled with this in mind. We will listen to your needs. We will provide you with the tools. We will inspire you. We will be there for you.

An amputation is both physically and emotionally challenging for anyone. It is important to understand that many new amputees function very well and pursue the same active lifestyle as prior to limb loss.
